

Lord you are God and I trust in you
You are holy and you protect me
You are all I need and the place where I wanna be You take away ~~my~~ all sickness, ~~that~~ you're my clue
With you I am strong, because you give me strength
You secure me all the way and I don't have to be afraid in any way. I give all my fears and worries to you.
I rest in your arms. And when the whole world is against me, you are for me ~~and~~ and you won't leave me. And when everything seems hopeless, I'm faithful, because you are my hope In the deepest darkness, you shine bright, 'cause you're the light
And because you are truth, you will ~~never~~ never ever betray me
And you will always love me no matter what happens Because before the world even existed you already loved me.
No one is greater than you lovely father. You never fail You know me better than anyone else. You're my savior, my safety, my shield, my strength and my ~~safe~~ safe place to run to. You are my lord, only in you I can find true happiness and joy. Your presence is all I need.
Oh Lord, you fill me with joy and make me laugh in happiness Forever I praise your holy name. The bible says: The lord will save us. And you saved us because never break your promises.
You are the way. You lead me. I walk in your promise.
You are the living and refreshing water.
